

Glenelg Shire Council

Casterton Livestock Saleyards Advisory Committee

Terms of Reference

Legal Basis

The committee shall be an advisory committee established by Council as described in Section 3 of the Local Government Act 1989.

The Glenelg Shire Council Casterton Livestock Saleyards Advisory Committee (the Advisory Committee) is a representative group established to advise Council on operating and maintaining the Casterton Livestock Saleyards. The Advisory Committee members have significant knowledge and/or interest in and the capacity to enhance and strengthen the operation of the Saleyards).

The function of the Advisory Committee is to provide information and advice to Council on:

- operation and maintenance of the Saleyards, the capital works required to meet industry standards, and policy implementation to meet industry regulations and legislation;
- meeting the requirements of the National Livestock Identification Scheme, European Union, Quality Assurance, Animal Welfare, Meat and Livestock Australia, Occupational Health and Safety and other regulations;
- relevant policy-making in relation to the Saleyards operation; and
- annual fees and charges recommended to Council to permit appropriate maintenance of the Saleyards to an acceptable industry standard.

The Advisory Committee shall report regularly to Council following each of its meetings by submitting a record of each meeting and any recommendations for Council's consideration.

Council has the power to disband the Advisory Committee at any time.

Committee's Authority

The Advisory Committee is an advisory committee to Council.

The Advisory Committee does not have the power to direct any Council officer to undertake any work but may make recommendations to Council to assist in its decision-making process.
