

Glenelg Shire Council

Glenelg Mara Quorin Aboriginal Advisory Committee (aoC)

Terms of Reference

Legal Basis

The committee shall be an advisory committee established by Council as described in section 3 of the Local Government Act 1989 (the Act).

Where indicated by the phrase '(aoC)' in the title, the advisory committee is also an assembly of Councillors.

Any advisory committee that is also an assembly of Councillors must comply with the provisions of section 80A of the Act.

The Glenelg Mara Quorin Aboriginal Advisory Committee (the Advisory Committee) is a representative group established to advise Council on the Glenelg Aboriginal Partnership Agreement 2011 – 2020 and the Glenelg Aboriginal Partnership Plan 2017- 2020.

The Advisory Committee members have significant knowledge and interest in Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people.

The function of the Advisory Committee is to provide information and advice to Council on:

- Progress towards the implementation of the Glenelg Aboriginal Partnership Plan.
- Developing a communication and engagement strategy.
- Promoting active stakeholder and community participation in the implementation of the Partnership Agreement and Partnership Plan.
- Educating the community about the rationale, goals and strategies of the Agreement and Partnership Plan.
- Reporting to stakeholders on progress towards meeting the goals of the Agreement and Partnership Plan.

The Advisory Committee shall report to the next Council following each of its meetings by submitting a record of each meeting and any recommendations for Council's consideration.

Council has the power to disband the Advisory Committee at any time.

Committee's Authority

The Advisory Committee is an advisory committee to Council.

The Advisory Committee does not have the power to direct any Council officer to undertake any work but may make recommendations to Council to assist in its decision-making process.

Term of the Committee

The term of the Advisory Committee will commence on the date of appointment by Council and will conclude at the end of the term of the current Council.

Membership

Membership will include:

Five (5) members of the Glenelg Shire Council (Councillors), one of whom will act in the Chairperson role and two of whom are proxies.

Two (2) members of each of the signatories including:

- Two (2) from Winda-Mara Aboriginal Corporation
- Two (2) from Gunditj Mirring Traditional Owners Aboriginal Corporation
- Two (2) from Dhauwurd-Wurrung Elderly and Community Health Service.

Council staff members with specialist skills and knowledge will be invited to attend the Advisory Committee's meetings only to provide specific advice or information.

Councillor Representatives will be appointed or reappointed as soon as practicable after Council elections and be appointed for a period no greater than the Council's term.

Members may be granted leave of absence and replaced by secondment for the period of absence with the agreement of the chairperson.

A member shall cease to hold office if he or she is absent from four (4) consecutive meetings without a leave of absence with the agreement of the Chairperson.

Meetings

First Meeting

Date, time and place of the first meeting shall be determined by the Councillor appointed as the Chairperson of the Advisory Committee.

Quorum

Quorum will be half of the Advisory Committee members plus one.

Decision-making

Recommendations to Council should be formed by a consensus. If a consensus is not achieved, decisions will be made by a vote (show of hands) of members.

Each Councillor or member present at a meeting of the Committee who is entitled to vote is entitled to one vote.

If the number of votes in favour of the question is half the number of Councillors or members of the Committee present at the meeting at the time the vote is taken, the Chairperson has a second vote.

The outcome of the vote must be included in the Meeting Minutes.

Frequency of meetings

The Advisory Committee shall meet at a minimum frequency of quarterly each year.

Meeting Costs

All Advisory Committee representatives and substitute representatives will be responsible for their own costs incurred in attending meetings of the Advisory Committee.

Councillors may claim for travel expenses incurred to attend a Council appointed Committee, in accordance with the Mayor and Councillor Entitlements Policy.

Meeting Facilities and Administrative Support

The CEO or relevant Group Manager will ensure that appropriate administrative support is provided to the Advisory Committee.

The CEO or relevant Group Manager (or his/her delegate) will ensure the preparation and receipt of agenda items, preparation and distribution of agendas, recording and distribution of minutes for each meeting of the Advisory Committee and the provision of venue meeting arrangements, in accordance with current accessibility guidelines.

An agenda will be compiled and distributed, in an accessible format, at least seven days before the proposed meeting and agenda reports must be submitted to the CEO or relevant Group Manager (or his/her delegate) at least ten days before the proposed meeting date.

The Advisory Committee shall report to regularly to Council following each of its meetings by submitting a record of each Council meeting and any recommendations for Council's consideration.

Meeting minutes for all Advisory Committee meetings will be taken as read and confirmed as an accurate record of that meeting by the Advisory Committee at its next meeting. Copies of the Advisory Committee meeting minutes will be distributed to all members as soon as practical after completion.

Place of Meetings

Meeting times and venues will be set by the Committee except for the first meeting which will be held at one of the Glenelg Shire Council offices.

Media Comments

All media comments must be made in accordance with the Glenelg Shire Council Media Policy. The Chief Executive Officer may request the Group Manager Community and Culture (or his/her delegate) to make a media comment.

Agent representatives, other community representatives and substitute community representatives must not make media comments relating to business discussed at Advisory Committee meetings.
